June/July 2020

Promoting Sailing, Boating, & Related Activities!

The BBSC PHRF season kicked off anew on May 16th with the Round the Bay West Race, followed by the Round the Bay East on June 20th and the Doublehanded Race on July 11th. We've had to adapt, with Zoom meetings for briefings and awards, but on the water, we've had the same great competition as we always expect. We're halfway through the Commodore's Cup competition, and the Sailor of the Year Challenge is going strong. You can see the current standings on the last page.

Upcoming events:

- Aug 1 - Pick Your Poison – Howl at the Moon Edition
5:30pm start
- Aug 22 - Ladybug Race

Regards, PHRF Fleet Captain, Tom McNally

Wednesday Night Races

We had a great turnout last week with 21 boats showing up for a great sail out to Boggy 1. SHENANIGAN was the race committee and handed out zero style points. First to the mark and first time sailing with us was BARATARIA. Congrats. If you sail again, you must do one 360 turn prior to rounding Boggy 1.

Victory over the line belonged to MUD BUG. They now owe 2 turns prior to finishing first again.

Finish places were:

21. Per Dieum
20. Kahlua
19. Ida Claire
18. Irish Lady
17. Amazing Grace
16. Whit's End
15. Shenanigan
14. Nick Of Time
13. Barataria
12. Stickman
11. Wind Chaser
10. Rock N Roll
9. Panacea
8. Pura Vida
7. Lovely Crews
6. Stella De La Mar
5. Avocet
4. Mud Hen
3. Island Girl
2. Epiphany
1. Mud Bug

Small Boats Racing

Hello Sailors!

We're almost half way through the BBSC Small Boat regular season. We just had our 5th race, the "Tax Day Invitational" on Sunday!

Thanks to all who have participated, and I'm sure everybody has had fun on the water staying healthy at a safe distance in small boats! As it turns out, the "new abnormal" doesn't apply to us...we never had a requirement to meet before or after the small boat races, so we've been "business as usual!"

If you haven't noticed, sailing on small boats is required for the "Sailor of the Year" competition. So, if you have a boat in the corner of your yard, dust that baby off and get out there. If you don't, let me know, and we'll find a way to get you on the water!

Our next race is Sunday, 9 August at 2:00 for a first start. We plan on four races before 4:00 PM. Can't wait to see you out there!

Greetings social sailors!

With the current happenings around the area (bars being closed and social distancing being enforced) happy hours, raft ups, and other social events are still being put on hold. We are rescheduling the Shrimp Boil to a later date sometime in the fall and will be combining it with the annual bonfire. Keep a look out for emails and posts on the BBSC Facebook page for updates about any social events that are being cancelled/postponed and what could also be in our near future!

If you have any questions, reach out to either me (Aleksa) or Zack.

*Cheers! Stay safe!
Cheers, Z & A - Rear Commodores*

COMMODORE'S

CORNER

Ahoy Sailors,

It's already late July, but it feels so much longer since our last update went out. How much has changed since then? Thankfully for our club, we have turned the proverbial lemons into lemonade - for which I commend the members I see out sailing, the race committees and the bridge members for making a reality.

Let's start with our most active group these days - the Small Boat fleet! I'm sure your Small Boat Fleet Captain's report will list the number and variety of races and fun sails (which look surprisingly like races to me) in entertaining detail. There are many more to come from the looks of it, so I recommend you take inspiration from the number of new regular boats showing up for events this year, and look to join them soon. Perhaps in a Flying Scot?

Next is the PHRF Fleet, who have developed what I think is quite an ingenious and modern distanced model for race organization with the use of Zoom calls for captain's meetings and awards, as well as the drop off of race fees and pickup of awards at the ship store. Your PHRF Fleet Captain and Vice Commodore, along with your Treasurer and April in the ship's store, have adapted and invested time so that our fun can continue. Perhaps other race organizers should take note!

In addition, thanks to our Bluewater Bay Marina hosts for the Wet Wednesday adaptations - the number of boats out regularly feels to be at an all time high to me.

In the Cruiser fleet, I see photos of you out - and more attending Wet Wednesday races or even PHRF races than in years past. It's great to see so many people out. Your Rear Commodores have some thoughts to share in their article this month regarding where we stand on social events, so please take a minute to read that letter.

As we move into the fall, I hope we can all continue the spirit of virtual communication and distanced participation going strong. Though I miss seeing you at Trivia Tuesdays and Raft Ups, the social connections that remain on GroupMe and across the waters are an important part of my week and, I trust, valuable to you all as well.

*See You Underway
