PHRF FLEET CAPTAIN REPORT

The four-race Summer Race Series has drawn to a close. The late afternoon racing format was well received. # Wednesday Night Races

Hola Intrepid Sailors,

Weather was questionable but the race committee SHENANIGAN made the call to race and it was a good call. They did a nice start and the line was clear.

Winds were light NE 4-6 kts. Race was straight line to the turning mark. Victory belonged to PIER PRESSURE (Their 3d first to the turning mark victory of the year - now they have a 7 min delay at the start).

It was a slow trip home. 1st to quit was IDA CLAIRE who then attacked DIAMOND which resulted in a fur ball slow BFM through the rest of the course into the channel and back to the slip.

Line honors belonged to STICKMAN (I assume they did their 2 required turns). STICKMAN is now the point leader for the season.

Finish places were:

- DNF - IDA CLIARE
- DNF - DIAMOND
8. MARU
7. SNAP DRAGON
6. AVOCET
5. WIND SWEEP
4. PIER PRESSURE
3. SHENANIGAN
2. EPIPHANY
1. STICKMAN

Small Boats Racing 2021

It's been an exciting season, but we've been affected by the weather! However, we managed to reschedule our last Small Boat Summer Series race on Sunday, 5 September, and it was a blast! Thanks to Dinger Redinger and Mickey Duvall for doing race committee!

The winds were light, but it was a beautiful night on the water. Congrats Tom McNally taking first in his Flying Scot, which he did with different crew on each race! Zack Kastl & AWOL Hampton took second, and our junior racers Spencer & Logan took third! Good Job!

We had an impromptu raft-up after the race because the next day was Labor day— it turned out to be a blast. Because of that, we're going to try and get some buzz for that on the next race!

The next race will be the "Columbus Day Invitational" on Sunday, 10 October, with a 2:00 start time. Check your email as we get closer with more details, but let's raft up after the race!

COMMODORE'S CORNER

Ahoy Sailors,

We are starting to feel the fall weather come in, and it has been beautiful! We have had several events on really nice evenings recently, and more are to come. Our traditional fall lineup is back, including Race to the Park, a Fall Cruise, the Single Handed race, and Grande Finale. This year we are also including SailFest as a weekend at the end of October with events for all sailors. Take a look at the calendar and read up on how you can get involved in the articles from your Bridge in this newsletter.

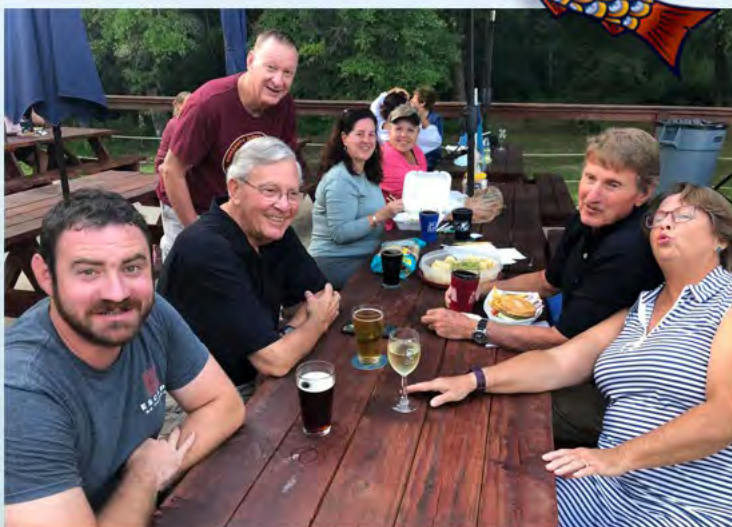

With regard to the other weather events of this time of year, we have already dodged two hurricane bullets so far. I am sure more will line up for us in the coming months before we can breathe easy again. Take a moment to make sure your hurricane plan is in place, and check on your fellow sailors as well.

Soon it will be time to think about end of year events and awards. I look forward to celebrating what has turned out to be a pretty good year with all of you. Until then,

See you underway.
Commodore Michael Morris
